Bihun Bakwan Pecel

A traditional Indonesian combination of vermicelli noodle, vegetable fritters, and peanut sauce, blending textures and flavors in one comforting plate.

Coffee is a brewed beverage made from roasted and ground seeds—commonly called "beans"—of the Coffea plant. It's known for its dark color, slightly bitter and acidic flavor, and stimulating effect driven primarily by caffeine. Coffee beans are most frequently roasted, ground, and brewed with hot water. It's one of the world's most popular drinks—typically served hot, but often enjoyed iced or cold, too.
